

Arab EFL teachers are reminded to remind their students of such words. IN class, therefore, , Arab EFL instructors are encouraged to expose their learners to authentic L2 materials with highlighted loanwords, and train them to contextually deduce the meaning of these words and make correct links with the corresponding Arabic words. At home, Arab EFL learners need to be exposed to easy and pleasurable extensive reading materials which are full of frequently used loanwords.