

Due to the highest thing that Jarir Company seeks to achieve is customer satisfaction and providing the best quality, in 2023 AD, a service was created to evaluate the level of customer satisfaction after closing service requests, as it allows the customer to evaluate the service provided to him after completion, in addition to achieving a 97% customer satisfaction rate with the services provided through the call centers.