Odile's room was at the top of the castle tower. Rocford hput her there after he had taken her from her parents. Shethe most beautiful princess in the land, and her parents weregood and kind. Rocford had asked her father if he could maOdile. Odile was brought to the wizard. "Odile, this man has asked to marry you. He says he is vervrich and that he will make you the happiest princess in the world What do you think?" Odile looked into the wizard's eyes. The look in her eyes and her questions made Rocforduncomfortable. "We must ask my daughter what she thinks."

Summarized by © lakhasly.com