

21st century learning is the development of a highly skill set for the future, 21st century skills are flagged as critical for the digital and evolution economy practical ducation is complementary to 21st century learning, At the same time as developing mportant skills and knowledge in the subject, students engage in activities and irojects that promote 21 century skilis such as critical thinking, creativity ommunication and collaboration.