

Civil Law: Derived from Roman law and based on comprehensive written codes and statutes. Legal disputes are resolved by applying the code's provisions, making predictability key for businesses. Countries like France, Germany, and Japan follow this system.