

Article about the Internet: there are millions of people use the internet everyday.the internet has many advantages and disadvantages like other technologies.some people use the internet to shop online, and some other people use it for education purposes.the advantages of the internet is that it makes our life easy, also, we can search for movies, books, and many useful information, we can book a flight tickets and make reservation for hotels by the internet.some people get hacked and their money get stolen by hackers.the internet is a great invention but like other inventions it has many disadvantages.many people misuse the internet and trick other people to get their money by selling fake products.also, people use the internet for long hours a day and waste their time by using the internet there are also website in the internet with very bad content that are not safe forhowever, there is disadvantages of using the internet.