

The Economy The Kingdom's economy will grow and expand into new sectors. A dynamic business environment with upgraded services and facilities will offer opportunities for investment and attract large and small businesses from different countries ??The renewed and streamlined business environment will increase opportunities for citizens and attract investors from all over the world. Telecommunications and information technology will be updated and made available in urban and rural areas. ?????