

The Empty Quarter Highway, connecting Ibri in Oman to Saudi Arabia, spans approximately 725 kilometers, with 161 kilometers in Oman and 564 kilometers in Saudi Arabia. They can lead to increased temperatures and reduced visibility due to dust and sand particles. Visibility: Dust storms associated with Sharqi winds can significantly reduce visibility, necessitating caution during travel. NEARWEATHER.COM Sharqi Winds: Emanating from the east during the winter months, Sharqi winds can be accompanied by dust storms, affecting visibility and travel conditions. Prevailing Winds in the Region: Shamal Winds: These northwesterly winds typically occur during the summer months, bringing hot and dry air.