

about a country's history and geography. It is about understanding how and why cultures work differently. It is also important to understand your own cultural make-up in order