

Dear Sir/Madam, I am a secondary school student seeking a part-time shop assistant position advertised on your website. I am passionate about fashion and the environment, and I believe it is important to have shops that sell eco-friendly clothes to educate and inform consumers. Additionally, I speak Arabic, English, and French, and have previous experience working in a clothes shop with a satisfied manager. I am self-confident, organized, and responsible, and I enjoy meeting new people and discussing the latest designers and styles. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Sincerely, Sara Ahmed
