

The plot is your usual boy-meets-horse, boy-gets-horse, boy-loses-horse fare. When Dad, drunk as usual, buys Joey at an auction -- an act of sibling rivalry toward his hoity-toity brother (T. Ryder Smith) -- young Albert takes on the animal's care and feeding.