

Not many people have the chance to visit the including the soles of its feet, which allows it to North and South Poles. If you went on a special adventure boat trip when you visited, you would be able to observe the Pole and many live in Antarctica. Unlike polar bears, penguins live in the South. Like polar bears, penguins are excellent swimmers. The polar bear lives in the cold, snowy Arctic. Penguins unique wildlife of these places, like polar bears, keep warm with thick skin and lots of fat under penguins and seals. Penguins have dark coloured feathers didn't see any seals. Their 5 If you went there in winter, you would probably nostrils can close so they can swim underwater experience severe snowstorms. They have different diets, but in general, they all eat a variety of small fish. It also has a thick layer of fur all over its body, beneath the fur the skin is black, so it absorbs heat. the opportunity to visit the Poles, they would appear similar – both are places of extreme cold. Polar bears are excellent swimmers. However, both and between the ice floes to look for seals, their are also places of spectacular beauty, with their favourite food. However, if you had swim in the coldest seas without feeling the cold. frozen landscapes of snow, ice and icebergs. heat. fast swimming.