

Montessori fourth stage: from 18 to 24 years old It is essentially a stage of maturity, and Montessori did not develop educational activities for this stage, but it adopted a curriculum for self-development for people who matured under the Montessori philosophy²– Sensitive periods characterized by the child repeating certain activities until he masters them. Sharpen the senses, focus on social behavior, and adopt small goals.