

Helen Adams Keller was born with her senses of sight and hearing and started speaking when she was 6 months old. In 1890 Helen became speechless