

We tested the results obtained by the non-invasive test in Table 8. If the results are compared to the Subset-A of Cleveland, some classifiers computed greater values than logistic regression, NB, and SVM. The features involved were the thallium heart scan (THAL), the number of major vessels colored by fluoroscopy (CA), and whether exercise-induced angina (EXANG).