

Bullying, involving physical, verbal, or emotional aggression, occurs in various settings (playgrounds, hallways, classrooms), ranging from overt to subtle acts. School culture, peer dynamics, and inadequate supervision contribute to its prevalence.