

Customer Churn: Since there is only one plan, users may be less willing to stay subscribed if they feel the service doesn't align with their needs anymore. A more personalized or tiered pricing structure could allow parents to select a more affordable option that focuses solely on children's content or a package that includes family-friendly features. With just one plan at $14.99, Streamflix is unable to cater to these varying needs.