

Implicit costs of production encompass the expenses related to self-owned and self-employed resources, often overlooked in expense calculations.