

I chose this type of lighting to give the room a soft, warm glow only, and the source of this light is installed in a tight way so that it is out of sight from all sides, and the light is directed upwards, and when it bounces down it gives the room a soft, warm glow