Education in 2030 By 2030 the vision program will have made great progress in developing more ways for better education for instance supporting teachers and students with resources or us being able to study from home online this would help students that are sick or live in remote areas by providing them online classes and perhaps drones that deliver project materials to our homes.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com