I want to be a Graphic Designer for several reasons.I love my work; I never get tired or bored of it, and I enjoy the fact that I must keep my work relevant to the demands of the commercial sector I am working in. Things change all the time, and to be a great Graphic Designer you must be current and stand out from everyone else.The main reason is that I get to express myself creatively as a Graphic Designer.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com