

Hello. I like my country because it is very modern. When friends visit Korea from other countries, they say my country is from the future with all its technology. What is really special for me is the way the old traditions are still alive in our modern no ever hing does my country is good Sometimes we are to anite due on tester an e are trining. know that can be a problem for visitors.