

3.9. Limitations and strengths The most important limitations of this study include the limitations of numbers of studies which as data source for the association between Nosocomial Infection and Needle Sticks Injuries, causative factor and adverse health effects. Conclusions The properly managed nosocomial infection and needle sticks injuries is very vital for avoid the issues associated creating nosocomial infections. 4.