

In this situation the staff is not reporting to work on time .The HR must schedule a meeting with the staff to let them know the negative impact of being late and lay out strict rules to improve punctuality.The weekly feedback is very important because based on it salaries will be deducted.We have to make a plan to highlight the importance of punctuality.