

Muscat Festival: It is one of the most important festivals in which the efforts of all the active sectors in the country, official and private, and even popular ones, are combined to reflect the charming beauty of the Sultanate, the depth of its history and heritage, development and the incident while preserving the cultural heritage and adhering to the authentic Arab customs and traditions of the Omani people. The festival is usually held in the Governorate of Muscat in the period between January and February of each year, and provides a great occasion for shopping and sightseeing. The festival also presents various artistic, cultural and heritage activities and events.