

The survey also highlighted challenges faced by families with children, the need for comprehensive adoption platforms, and the importance of veterinary care.