| We have mentioned repeatedly that the Carnot cycle is the most efficient cycle operating between two specified temperature limits. If we could, we would certainly adopt it as the ideal cycle. | |
|---|--|
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |