

Analysis for free fall experiment: When plotting the distance falling against the square of time, a straight line should appear if air resistance is not a factor.