

Estimate the maximum amount of water needed annually: The maximum amount of water required for a given area must be known at the beginning of the PV solar water pump design process. The total area of the irrigated dunum is 15 dunums, and the crops grown there are tomatoes.