

Isabelle is an older woman who lives alone in a rural area and always wears colorful clothes with some of flower drawing , her neighbors always appreciate her helping and kinds with a smile in her face , anna feeling jealousy from here because her neighbors are always alienated from her because of her harsh nature and facial features that indicate anger and lack of acceptance of others , so she deiced to make a plan to make the people hate Isabelle , in morning she go to Isabelle house and open the door of the animal farm that had cows and goats and let them go and eat all the planet of the neighborhood houses and she run away , when Isabelle came from the main market she was shocked because she saw all the neighbors standing out of her house and there faces shows how there are disappointed and anger , so they decided to give Isabelle 3 days to sale her animals or they will let her go out from here house , she were sad and unbelievable and she was sure she locked the door of animals , at night someonenock the door Isabelle opened the door he was jack the woodcutter came to tell her the truth and he tell her that anna how open the door and runaway , at morning she goes with jack to tell the neighbors and when anna knows she felt ashamed and asked for her forgiveness, and in the end the neighbors appreciated Anne's position and their relationship with her improved