

Marketing is a essential strategy within business management that focuses on promoting and selling products or services.2.Branding: Creating a strong identity for your business, like a memorable logo and message.