

Locally owned stores are important for our community. We are in big trouble if we lose our locally owned businesses—we need to keep them.