

A. The Algerian legislator emphasized the need to protect both individuals and society from illegal speculation through Law 21-15, which criminalizes all forms of attacks on the purchasing power of citizens and the creation of scarcity aimed at causing chaos and making illegal profits from surprising the consumer. B.