

The final step in preparing for a job interview is presenting yourself professionally. Dress appropriately and arrive early to demonstrate punctuality.