

o As much as 70–80% of the factual data physicians use in evaluation of patients is generated by the clinical laboratory.