

There's no rail friction to speak of, meaning these trains can hit speeds of hundreds of miles per hour.