

The specialty of business administration is described as the specialization that describes the processes, actions, duties, and matters that organize all types of business, such as the business of firms, institutions, and organizations.