

Both hydrogen atoms at position 5 must be substituted for maximal activity due to susceptibility to rapid metabolic attack. Longer chains decrease CNS depressant RH action and may induce convulsions. o A phenyl group at position 5 enhances anticonvulsant activity and prolongs the duration of action.