

Caleb was a very selfish boy. The boy cried, "Ah! I can't move my arm." But Caleb would never help anyone but that day, he felt sad for the boy. So, he rushed to him and helped him stand up. He said to the boy, "Looks like you have fractured your hand. Sit behind me and I'll ride you to the hospital." Later, that evening, the boy's parents visited Caleb and thanked him, "You are a very kind boy. God will always bless you." After they had left, Caleb's father said, "Son, see the blessings you receive by being kind and sharing."
