

To begin with, you have to practice speaking English every day so you can feel more confident during the competition. For example, try to talk in English with your classmates, teachers, or even at home. In other words, the more you practice, the more natural and fluent you will become.