Arbitration simplified rules of evidence.Arbitration hearings usually Arbitration is a simplified version of a trial involving limited discovery and last between a few days to a week, and the panel only meets for a few hours per day.To comprise a panel, either both sides agree on one arbitrator, or each side selects one arbitrator and the two arbitrators elect the third.Opinions are not public record.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com