

Meraben's father, after being accused of stealing, told the king that his daughter could turn straw into gold and he would return twice the money he stole when the king requested her. She was in trouble, her father lied. The ghoul said when you become queen, you will compensate me after a year. The girl asked again.