How the Sun and the Moon Were Made Do you ever wonder where the moon and the sun came from? She even balanced beautiful jewels in it. She wanted to encourage the person to grab it again. The Inuit people of Alaska have a theory. In contrast, her brother was a mean little boy. They attended the party together. They tell a story about a beautiful girl. She was very nice. One day he proposed something. "We should go to a party," he said. The girl accepted. First, it was necessary for her to prepare. She arranged her hair and put on nice clothes. This required a lot of time. But the girl worked hard, and soon she had success. She looked perfect. The girl was having fun. Later, she walked into the bathroom. Suddenly, the lights were turned off! Someone grabbed her hair and tore her clothes. She ran out of the bathroom. Then she had an idea. They became huge.
