

Financial management is the planning, controlling, monitoring and coordinating of financial resources to achieve organisational objectives. It is the administration of money with accuracy to guarantee that the company meets its requirements, develops as well as becomes financially rewarding.