

Speech and language assessment should occur during the first 24 months. Reading assessment should occur by school age to rule out dyslexia.