Scenario 1: A staff member approaches her manager requesting to speak confidentially. The description involves verbal abuse and discriminating comments. She reports observing a colleague harass another colleague who is at a lower level in the organization. The staff member reporting the incident is also involved in the conversation, along with a HR manager. Divide the roles for the group members and act out the meeting situation.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com