

The educational tourism sector is booming and presents great business opportunities within the hotel sector and e-commerce. Currently, different types of tourism have been developed: ecological tourism, gourmet tourism, solidarity tourism, rural tourism etc, which also integrate a specific experience to choose from by the person who hires the trip.