

home health services: 1. This may include monitoring vital signs, assessing lung function, and ensuring proper inhaler or nebulizer technique. Home Nursing Care: A registered nurse should visit the patient regularly to assess her condition, provide education on asthma management, and administer necessary medications or treatments. – Regular Follow-up Visits: Schedule regular follow-up visits to monitor her condition and make any necessary adjustments to her asthma management plan.