Dear WhatsApp Support Team, I hope this message finds you well.I have read and understood the terms of service, and as a responsible and educated individual with a technical background, I am fully aware of the importance of compliance and proper use.My phone number is widely known and relied upon for communication, and it is essential for me to continue using it. Losing access has caused serious disruption to both my professional and personal life.I believe this action may have been taken in error, possibly due to unauthorized access (hacking), suspicious activity, or false/malicious reports from unknown parties.I would like to clearly state that I fully respect and strictly adhere to all WhatsApp policies and guidelines.
