The recommended method for measuring the stature is to position the subject barefoot on a level directly against a vertical wall or door.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com